Instructions

1 – Receipt of candidate information

The completed candidate information form must be received by the conservation district by the filing deadline. An individual who does not provided candidate information by the filing deadline can only be elected as an undeclared write-in candidate if no other person files by the candidate filing deadline. WAC 135-110-355(2)b; WAC 135-110-360.

2 – Receipt of nominating petition

The completed candidate information form and the completed nomination petition must be received by the conservation district by the filing deadline. A candidate who submits a nominating petition after the filing deadline will be considered a declared candidate and their name will not appear on the official ballot. WAC 135-110-350; WAC 135-110-340.

3 – Verification of candidate eligibility

The conservation district must verify the eligibility of the candidate to hold the public office of conservation district supervisor. WAC 135-110-355(2)d.

4 – Verification of statutory board composition

The conservation district must verify that the board composition resulting from the election of this candidate will meet the statutory requirement that at least one of the two appointed supervisors must be a landowner or operator of a farm, and at least two of the three elected supervisors must be landowners or operators of a farm. WAC 135-110-355(2)e.

5 – Verification of nominators on nominating petition

The conservation district must verify the eligibility of each person signing the nominating petition. Only qualified district electors are eligible to sign. Signatures of people found to not be qualified district electors must not be counted toward the 25 nominator minimum required for a valid nominating petition. WAC 135-110-355(3).

6 – Ballot finding

If the answers to sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 are in the affirmative, and the total number of nominators found to be qualified district electors is 25 or more, the candidate's name must be placed on the official ballot.
