

Coordinated Resource Management Program

Facilitator and Coach List

The individuals listed have offered their services on a case-by-case basis according to their personal constraints of time, interest, availability, etc. All of them have training and/or experience in CRM or other collaborative processes. Those listed under “Facilitators” can fulfill an active, facilitating role; and those listed under “Coaches” are available for advice and general mentoring. Again, please remember that the level of involvement and reimbursement is up to the individual Coach or Facilitator. Each list is alphabetical. You may also contact members of the CRM Task Group for similar assistance.
